Let Faith Help You Start The NEW YEAR Right

The holidays are over and life has returned to normal. Now is the time to launch yourself into a momentum of accomplishment that can carry you through the entire year. For example, write that letter you've been postponing. Clean out that closet and give all those good clothes you haven't worn for a long time to some charitable organization. Help someone who is ill or disabled by lending a hand with the household chores. Then, in addition to all the other worthwhile projects that will occur to you, help the Church of your choice in any way that is needed; and begin attending it regularly if you are not already doing so. It will give you the best possible start on the new year.

We thought you should know... that in the area of medical malpractice suits, in one state, ten times as many million-dollar awards have been made since 1970 than in all the years before. The growing volume of such suits is adding more than $3 billion to the nation's annual cost of health care, according to HEW.
What's the point? The point is, this is just one of the many circumstances helping to push the cost of insurance beyond the reach of many.
You can help by talking to your neighbors and friends, writing your representatives in government and contacting your insurance commissioner. Or, by talking to us.
Then maybe you won't just blame your insurance company and your agent.
The more people who understand the problem, the better prepared we'll all be to work out the solutions.

J. W.'s Model T's - on the left is shown a 1926 Roadster Runabout, and on the right a 1918 Center Door Sedan, both in running condition. Like to take a spin?

Then And Now

By: Frances H. Paulette

I have found that the most interesting people are those who keep the busiest, and there is a young man in Appomattox who is indeed busy and has many and varied interests. J. W. (Joseph Warren) Lewis, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lewis, is a young man with an inquiring mind who actively pursues several hobbies.

A 1971 graduate of Appomattox County High School, J. W. attended Central Virginia Community College. In addition to the beautiful restoration of antique cars, he collects old bottles, insulators, and is a topnotch photographer. If you're interested in the bottles and cars of the days of THEN, J. W. is the man to see!

I am deeply grateful to the Lewis family, and especially to J.W., for allowing me to visit in their home, see the perfectly restored Model T's, the large, unusual collection of bottles, and see the results of his interest in photography. There's no doubt about it, J.W. is both a busy and interesting young man.

'J. W. and The Model T's

It was an extremely cold day last Wednesday, and J. W. Lewis was on his way to the post office. Driving along, thankful for the warmth and comfort of his modern car, he began to notice that his car didn't sound just right. 'Well', Thought J.W., 'I can't blame it--even the most expensive car in the world would probably hesitate on a day as cold as this!'

As he turned the corner into Church Street, heading toward the railroad crossing it became evident that his modern, dependable car of the days of NOW was about to call it quits for the day.

Had the year been 1926 rather than 1976, J.W. could have turned right about where the Pool Room and Garris Shop now stand and been 'smack-dab' in front of the local Ford agency, owned and operated by Mr. Walter Hancock and Mr. Walter Scott. It is 1976, however and J. W. had to take his car to Lawson Ford on highway 460, the modern, well staffed Ford agency of NOW.

Leaving his car in capable hands, J. W. was thinking as he returned home --- not of his car, but of the two Model T's standing in their perfectly restored splendor in the family garage. A 1918 Center Door Sedan, and a 1926 Roadster Runabout. Now there were two beauties . . . but when he first saw them they weren't quite so beautiful, but that's a long story. Next week, we'll find out just what it takes to make an old antique car of THENinto the beauties J. W. and his father now own. Interested?

St. Luke

This is a year that God has given us. What shall we do with it?

A large throng of people attended the services of Triumph for Deacon Harmon D. Tweedy Tuesday December 28, at 2:00 p.m. at the St. Luke Baptist Church, of which he was a life-time member.

Rev. J. C. Mclaughlin gave the eulogy. Acknowledgements and obituary by Mrs. Louise Canada. Deacon S. M. Hunter spoke for the Board of Deacons of the church. Solo by Mrs. Sarah Childs. Remarks by Rev. J. D. Moore, pastor of the 5th St. Baptist Church. A solo by Rev. Berryman, "Tll Trust In God", a favorite song of the deceased deacon. This was a very touching, but beautiful service. The subject for the sermon preached by Rev. McLaughlin was "My Servant Is Dead."

On Friday from 10:00 p.m. until 1:00 a.m. a watch night and candle light service was observed at the St. Luke Church. Rev. McLaughlin was present and he gave the young Rev. Alvin Jones the honor to preach the sermonette for the candle light service. He was great. His subject was "Let's Cross Over." Mrs. Grace Walker asked bible questions at 12:00. Song and prayer was had and testimony that the spirit was there and much rejoicing was heard, giving thanks to God for the many, many blessings.

Then all went down to the fellowship hall and enjoyed a bountiful meal of black-eyed peas, hog jowl, greens, chicken, ham, etc. The fellowship meant much.

Regular preaching services were well attended at the St. Luke Church on Sunday, January 2, 1977. Rev. Mc. Laughlin was present and spoke on the subject "Where Are You Going?". He said now is the time to know where we are going. The adult choir gave the music. Mrs. J. Nowlin was at the piano. Communion was observed which was very touching. Mrs. Delton Nowlin joined St. Luke to work with her husband who is already a member. Others joined and rededicated themselves to the church. The offering was good.

Mr. Alfred Canada and his wife and little son spent Christmas day and until Monday night with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Canada. Mrs. Susie and her daughter, Miss Barbara also visited in this same during the holidays.

Miss Ramona Canada was a visitor of her grandparents and had as her guest, Mr. Kenneth Jones.

Mr. Gregory Canada and his guest visited Mr. and Mrs. Canada. Miss Shirley and Miss Alice Hubbard were his guests.

Deacon and Mrs. C. H. Canada were callers in the home of his sister, Mrs. Ida Daniels Sunday p.m.
